THE COVER Peter lifted the painting from its makeshift tripod on the table. White Fang His mind asked as he looked at brush strokes in shades of greys and white that looked like fur. From a distance it looked like an animal; like a wolf or dog, but close up it looked different. What would be an eye made it difficult to know for sure. The eye was odd. Peter studied it and then realized that the glare of light in the eye took on a definite form and shape. It looked like it was someone dancing, a girl. Yes. Peter thought, looking at it closely. That's her long hair flowing behind her in the wind. The sentence caused him to flash the image of Jeneil on the beach the first time he saw her. He touched the glare on the painting gently with the tips of his fingers. That's how she looked. His heart skipped a beat. He studied the painting for a name even turning it over and checking the back of it. There wasn't one. As he turned...
