Said he, May your reverend honor Be blest with large Christmas dues, I was bringing the last to Dan Connor To swap for a new pair of shoes, But it bolted away through your garden, Of it we are now in pursuit; May I never be made a churchwarden If we meant to injure your fruit. 41 Sure, my poor cousin Tim s nearly killed, sir, By striving to keep on its back; It is very strong and self-willed, sir, It has taken your first on its back. While the priest was rebuking our folly, At total Jim got a chance peep; Twas hid at the root of a holly, Apparently taking a sleep. He made a smart spring, and he caught it, And joy sparkled out of his eyes When he to his reverence brought it. To prove he was not telling Ties. Said the priest, For your enndid confession, Bawn Shemus, ma bouchal asthore, You may go to Jerry McGlashnn, And drink of my poteen galore. Then oft to old Jerry s we started, Where we drank a gallon at least, And told him, before we departed, The way we bamboozled the priest. 9.--Square Words A hoax; a term in music; a brief record; a destroyer of vermin; a famous port of Europe; idlers (transposed; 10.--Chaeadb. My whole may be...
