Enlightenment May or May Not Happen

By Madhukar Thompson

Zen Publications, Mumbai, 1999. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 23 cms. 300pp. How can I tell if I'm making progress in my spiritual search? Can I speed it up at all, and if so-how? Answers to these and other crucial recurrent questions can be found in this book. But be warned: these answers are uncompromising and may shatter your misconceptions. Ramesh S. Balsekar—life-long devotee of Ramana Maharshi, and disciple of Nisargadatta Maharaj—has been sharing his wisdom with seekers from all walks of life, for the past 20 years. Gently but insistently, he points to the fact that there is nothing anyone can do to hasten his or her spiritual progress, because the individual seeker, the 'me' entity, just does not exist. The outcome of our spiritual search is not in our hands. Rather, it is in the hands of that power—call it Consciousness or God—which turned us into seekers in the first place. All manifestation is a reflection of that same impersonal Consciousness, and it is That which is seeking and which does or does not become enlightened, according to its own ineluctable functioning. Madhukar Thompson recorded, transcribed and edited all conversations featured in this book. Brimming with earnestness and authenticity, they stand...
